European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018

(The Art of Sharing)

2018 is the European year of Cultural Heritage, a year of events, activities and celebrations all around Europe to get people interested and involved in cultural heritage. Cultural heritage is the fabric of our lives and societies. It surrounds us in the buildings of our towns and cities, our landscapes, natural sites, monuments and archaeological sites. It is not only made up of literature, art and objects but also by the crafts we learn, the stories we tell, the food we eat, the songs we sing and the films we watch. Cultural heritage brings communities and people together.

National Heritage Week is part of European Heritage Days and the theme for the Year in Ireland is 'Make a Connection'. This theme aims to deepen the connection between people and heritage, and build a legacy of increased public engagement.

Hundreds of event organisers, from national organisations to local community groups have planned events across the country for Heritage week from Saturday 18th Aug to Sunday 26th August. For a full list of Limerick and county events visit ...www.heritageweek.ie or pick up an event guide book at the back of the church or your local tourist office.

The Future of the Irish Parish

An important conference exploring the future of the Irish parish and hosted by the Irish Institute for Pastoral Studies in St Patrick's Campus of Mary Immaculate College takes place in Thurles on the 28th and 29th of August.

The conference will have speakers from across the world; New Zealand, South Africa, the UK and Canada sharing their experience of implementing team ministry from both a lay and clerical perspective as well as building community across parishes.

The Institute aims to enable the fulfilment of a new vision for the Church in Ireland to meet the current challenges it faces. The Institute will seek to avail of opportunities to work in partnership with the wider community becoming an active partner and contributor to the work of dioceses and parishes. Registration for the conference is open at the following link:

THE HURLER'S PRAYER

Grant me, O Lord, a hurler's skill,
With strength of arm and speed of limb,
Unerring eye for the flying ball,
And courage to match whatever befall.
May my stroke be steady and
my aim be true,
My actions manly and my misses few;
No matter what way the game may go,
May I rest in friendship and say hello!
When the final whistle for me has blown,
And I stand at last before God's throne,
May the great referee when he calls my name
Say, "You hurled like a man:
you played the game".
