Join us for the Papal Mass Broadcast

For all of you who will not be able to make it to Dublin!

You are invited to view the Papal Mass broadcast from Phoenix Park onto the large screen in your very own St John's Cathedral this Sunday, 26th. The Mass will begin in Phoenix Park at 3pm but you are asked to gather in the Cathedral beforehand so that you can join in prayer led by Fr Frank O'Connor at 2.30pm. I'm sure this will be a lovely way to have a communal experience of this historic event without all the hassles! You are advised to bring a cushion for your comfort!

Details of Vestments for WMOF 2018

Father Damian McNeice, Master of Ceremonies to Archbishop Diarmuid Martin and head of the Liturgy Committee for WMOF2018, introduced some of the liturgical elements that will feature throughout the World Meeting of Families 2018 in Dublin. The vestments for WMOF2018 will be in three colours, relating to the ordinary days and feast days during the week of WMOF2018.

Commenting on the vestments, Father McNeice said, 'Green has been chosen as the colour of vestments to be worn by Pope Francis during the Closing Mass of WMOF2018 in Phoenix Park which is the colour associated in the liturgy with Ordinary Time. The green is a symbol of how God is ever-faithful, and it also quite appropriate for a celebration in Ireland.

'At the centre of each vestment is the Trinity spiral, the same as can be seen in the WMOF2018 logo. The three parts of the spiral represent the mystery of the Holy Trinity, and also draws from Celtic imagery, as spirals can be found on many ancient stones and monuments of Ireland's past. The colours used in the spiral are the same green, red and gold as the vestments.

FEASTS OF OUR PATRONS

ST. MONICA 27th Aug & ST. AUGUSTINE 28th Aug

As Augustinians we owe a lot to St. Monica who gave us somebody who inspires our life and ministry, who presented us with the vision and reality of a community of friends in search of God. As a busy priest and bishop St. Augustine held on to the monastic ideal, the journey inwards to the heart and his passion for people and their problems.

With patience and perseverance his mother nurtured his genius and converted him to God's love. The world is deeply indebted to her. Her son, through his writings, his sermons and his pastoral practice has had profound influence on the direction of theology and spirituality.

Her tears and prayers can bring new heart and hope to mothers and to parents trying to keep the communication lines open to their prodigal sons and daughters. How appropriate this year we celebrate the WMOF praying for all families. Come and join us as we celebrate that special relationship between mother and son tomorrow Monday 27th (St. Monica) and Tuesday 28th (St. Augustine) at all Masses.

Camino 2019 Information Night

For anyone interested or thinking of joining us for our Camino 2019 we will be holding an information night on Tuesday 11th September. There will be a slide show of last year's Camino 2017 and any questions you may have will be answered. Geraldine Carey Van Dam will be hosting the evening. The venue and time will be announced next week.
