Scripture Sunday Oct 28th 'The Word of God and the Family'

As the Year of Mercy came to an end Pope Francis issued his Apostolic Letter Misericordia et Misera. In that letter Pope Francis said "I greatly desire that God's word be increasingly celebrated, known and disseminated, so that the mystery of love streaming from this font of mercy may be ever better understood. As the Apostle tells us clearly: 'All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness' (2 Tim 3:16). It would be beneficial if every Christian community, on one Sunday of the liturgical year, could renew its efforts to make the Sacred Scriptures better known and more widely diffused."

Because the Bible is a sacred book, the Word of God, we treat it with reverence and care. We give it a special place in our home. We look to the Bible as Word of Life. It can inspire, encourage, comfort, bring healing and hope. We pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we open our Bible and read a little portion regularly, on our own or with others.

ST. DOMINIC'S PRAYER BEFORE READING SACRED SCRIPTURE

Merciful God, anoint me in the Holy Scriptures as I read your Word. Let me hear your voice speaking to me from within. Give me wisdom to understand your message to me. Let your Word be the joy of my heart and the lamp to my feet. May I rejoice in the blessedness of hearing your Word and keeping it. Speak Lord, your servant is listening...

Thought for Today

The journey towards faith has many dimensions. Firstly, there is our need (expressed in the Gospel as blindness). Secondly, the courage to name our need, even in the face of opposition. Next comes our encounter with Jesus and our cry for help, guidance, healing. Naming our need is insisted upon by Jesus as an essential step, because faith is so much more than believing lots of doctrines. More fundamentally, it is an act of trust, a putting of myself in relationship and being able to receive from God whatever it is we need. This is the faith which makes us well.

Prayer

God, our light and hope, be our guide on the path of life and on the way of faith. Help us to be aware of our blindness, especially when we think we can see. With your healing touch, may we be filled with light and joy. Amen.
