Let us Rejoice. He is Risen!

As these glorious Spring days begin warming the earth into life, the Easter miracle is happening in cherry blossoms. Seeds and bulbs awake from their Winter sleep. Shrubs and plants are putting out green shoots and tender leaves. At first light the dawn chorus ushers in the dawn. Those who are in tune with nature can pick up the strong hints of Resurrection around them. With a perfect sense of timing in the northern hemisphere creation and resurrection come together in one great act of birth and rebirth. Commuters in grid-locked traffic and farmers on high-powered tractors miss out on both. Who will roll the stone away?

All of us have the capacity to "resurrect" others when we love them back to life from rejection and despair. We can help them to emerge from tombs of isolation in our listening and our caring. When we admit the light of the Risen Christ into our own dark places we can become "candles" of vision and hope for others.

Mother of Good Counsel Triduum

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, under the title Mother of Good Counsel has a special place of honour among the Augustinians. The original painting entitled Mother of Good Counsel is in the Augustinian Church in Genazzano, Italy. This picture portrays Mary holding the child Jesus. Her veil is around Jesus' shoulders, and Mary, caring mother that she is, is giving some good counsel to her son. An ancient legend says that this fresco was miraculously transported to Genazzano from its former home in Albania. The fresco came to rest on a narrow ledge inside the then unfinished Genazzano church, according to this legend, and it remains in the same place today.

The Genazzano church became a popular place of pilgrimage. Numerous cures took place there. The Augustinian Friars were invited to minister to the spiritual needs of the pilgrims. They continue to serve there to this day.

We will celebrate the feast of Our Mother of Good Counsel on Friday 26th and we would like to invite you to join us for this special Triduum.

Prayer in an Empty Tomb

"He is risen; he is not here" (Luke 24:6)

Risen Christ, inject life and hope into the empty places in my heart.
Resurrect the things which have died in me.
Help me to break free from the shrouds which imprison me.
Roll away the stones of despondency.
Awaken me out of the sleep of indifference.
Bring new life- to those who have lost meaning, faith, hope and love,
to those who are living in the clay of broken dreams,
to those who are locked in the tombs of despair and addiction,
to those who are experiencing the emptiness of grief,
to those who are entombed behind boulders and walls of hatred.
Transform my empty tomb into a womb of hope and promise.
Help me to rise again with you.
Touch my heart with a spirit of renewal.
Renew this church with the power of your risen life.
Put me in touch with the spirit of recovery and healing.
Lift me out of the valley of darkness.
Lead me to the wellsprings of joy.
Risen Christ, give us the capacity to 'resurrect' others, to love them back to life.
