Waiting for the Spirit

People don't like waiting. We are told that after the Ascension of Jesus into heaven the apostles "went back to Jerusalem and they joined in continuous prayer, together with several women, including Mary the Mother of Jesus, and with his brothers." Acts 1:14

They waited for the Spirit.....whatever that might mean, for they had no idea: but they waited. They waited, these first Christians, men and women, together in prayer, expectantly, with a certainty that "something" was about to happen to them'. And what a surprise that something would turn out to be on Pentecost Day.

Join with us as we wait- to celebrate Pentecost next Sunday at the 11.15am Mass. Come and pray for a new outpouring of the Spirit on this church so that we may re-discover the creative gifts of the first Pentecost and make a new beginning for a new time in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Limerick Sings in St. Augustine's

Limerick is set to resonate with the sound of music across three days this June 6th -9th as choirs from all over the world and Ireland come together for the Limerick Sings International Choral Festival 2016.

The festival, presented by Campus Life Services and University Concert Hall, was established to attract visiting choirs of all traditions and nationalities to Limerick for a weekend of festive, non-competitive singing in some of the City and County's wonderful venues, providing exceptional choral entertainment to local audiences.

Enjoy a flavour of the Limerick Sings with a fun Choral Trail throughout the city and suburbs - bring the family, old and young, and immerse yourself in song on Sunday 9th June in St. Augustine's Church for a short concert after the 11.15am Mass with the Croagh School of Music Junior Singers, directed by Fiona Linnane.

As we will be also celebrating Pentecost Sunday, and the beginning of the Ecumenical Bible week we have invited other Christian communities to join us with yourselves for a cup of tea and refreshments afterwards.

National Holy Wells Day

National Holy Wells Day will be celebrated this year on Sunday 16th June. This project 'Loving Sister Earth' is a response to Pope Francis's challenge to protect Planet Earth and to work for Universal Harmony.

As a people we have a long and rich tradition of praying at Holy Wells, of which there are some 3,000 around the countryside. National Holy Wells Day aims to raise awareness to create a nationwide network of Prayer and Care for our common home, focused on Ireland's Holy Places and appreciation for our Planet Earth.

Our Holy Places offer inspiration and energy, identity and rootedness, which encourage us to protect the local environment by building on our heritage.

Why not visit a Holy Well in your area and perhaps gather a few people with you to pray on Sunday 16th for the 'protection and fair distribution of water'.
