Sunday of the Word of God

This Sunday builds on the texts and prayers of the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time and is conscious that it comes just after the celebration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. While we are not yet united around the table of the Eucharist, we do share on many Sundays of the year the same scriptural readings in our different Christian assemblies. Pope Francis urges us to strengthen our bonds with the Jewish people and to continue our prayer for Christian unity. This Sunday is a time when the community is called to give greater attention not just to the Word of God. It is also urged to reflect on how we honour that Word in our celebrations, the books that we proclaim the Word from.

The Holy Spirit was at work in the whole process of the formation of the Scriptures. This is why, even though many people across different times and places contributed to the writing, we believe that the Scriptures are divinely inspired. But the Holy Spirit's work does not come to an end with the writing of the text. The Holy Spirit, who dwells in us by virtue of our baptism, is also at work in us as we listen to the text. Therefore, through the Spirit's inspiration, the words of Scripture can become a living Word of the Lord to us here and now.

Exploring the Message of the Sunday Gospels

The Gospels, Bishop Martin Drennan believes, introduce us to features of the face of God, each in its own ingenious way. They draw us to engage with this living God and allow ourselves to be transformed by him. His Word has the capacity to direct and redirect our lives, to prune us and bring about new growth. God's presence has the power to make us the best we can be.

St. Dominic's Prayer

Merciful God, anoint me
 in the Holy Scriptures
 as I read your Word
 let me hear your voice,
 speaking to me from within.
 Give me wisdom to understand
 your message to me.
 Let your Word be the joy of my heart
 and the lamp to my feet.
 May I rejoice in the blessedness
 of hearing your Word and keeping it.
 Speak Lord your servant is listening....
