Synodal Pathway

At their Spring General Meeting in Maynooth, Bishops were encouraged to hear of how the Synodal Pathway is gaining momentum in parishes and expressed thanks to the Steering Committee and Task Group for their generous commitment. A network of local listening sessions is now underway across Ireland in response to the invitation for synodal conversations during this first year of the Irish Synodal Pathway, and this coincides with the Universal Synodal Pathway launched by Pope Francis. There is a growing awareness and engagement in the process and bishops see Lent as an ideal timeframe for individuals and parishes, religious orders, ecclesial movements and others groups to focus on the Synodal Pathway, so as to reach out also in creative ways to hear the stories and views of those who might not normally be in Church circles.

Some dioceses have already received many written submissions around this year's themes and after Easter, on the basis of the Synodal conversations, each diocese will be preparing a ten-page synthesis. The Synod Task Group will shortly be meeting with Synod Diocesan Delegates to offer some direction and support in preparing these. A National Synodal event will be held on 18th June next to discern the themes that are to be forwarded from Ireland to the Universal Synodal pathway. For more on the Synodal Pathway see www.synod.ie

Thought for the Day

How did any of us make the journey towards faith in Christ? No doubt a great part of it is simply what we received—usually from family. At some point, did I make a conscious choice? Perhaps at other times, I felt like walking away from the faith project? What kept me going? Did a more personal ownership of faith result? Perhaps I felt the intuition of John O'Donohue, "Faith is helpless attraction to the divine." In spite of everything, perhaps in spite of myself, somehow it is part of who I am.

Prayer: Mysterious God, we are those who have seen and at the same time not seen. Help us to look beyond the simple gifts of each day to see you the giver behind—and in—every gift. Help us acknowledge Jesus that we may know true blessedness in believing. Amen.

Peace Apart

Lasting Impressions of C.S. Lewis
By Bishop Fintan Monahan

The author explores Lewis' faith journey and its twists and turns, through which he was transformed from a young man of lost faith to a man of deep faith and an apologist. He also explains why Lewis' writings, both fiction and spiritual, continue to resonate and inspire today.

The Courage of Their Convictions By Gemma Grant

This book details the stories of ordinary, and yet extraordinary, individuals whose unshakable faith and personal courage helped change the lives of millions.
